

Timeline

Sept 11, 1997

President Clinton's State of the Union Address

Sept 17, 1997

Federal Register Notice

Sept 24, 1997

Testimony by Kathleen A. McGinty, Chair, CEQ before Committee on Resources in the US House of Representatives

Fall of 1997

President makes call for river nominations

May and June 1998

Advisory Committee reviews nominations

June 16, 1998

Committee recommends 10 rivers to the President

July 30, 1998

President designates 14 American Heritage Rivers in a Proclamation

October 23-25, 1998

American Heritage Rivers initiative National Symposium in Atlanta, GA

January 27, 1999

Congressman Silvestre Reyes signs the American Heritage Rivers Rio Grande Memorandum of Understanding

February 1999

First river navigator is named, Potomac River

The Places

TIMELINE

The People

May 2-5, 1999

National Town Meeting in Detroit, MI

June 14-18, 1999

River Navigator/Community Partner Orientation, Indian Treaty Room, Washington, DC

November 1999

Joint River Navigator/Community Partner Annual Meeting, Hartford, CT

March 14-17, 2000

River Navigators meet with senior executives of more than a dozen federal agencies, brief members of Congress and their staff, Keystone Projects are developed

August 2-4, 2000

Joint River Navigator/Community Partner Annual Meeting, New Orleans, LA

November 15-17, 2000

Joint River Navigator/Community Partner Meeting, Portland, OR

